

Why Become an Allied Member?

Becoming an Allied member gives you a first row seat to industry happenings and opportunities for your business. The Washington Association of Wine Grape Growers provides you with access into the “movers and shakers” of the wine industry in Washington.

Benefits of Membership:

- Receive our monthly e-newsletter, “Grape Post,” and weekly industry “News Bites”
- Access to the Annual Meeting and Trade Show, the largest of its kind in the Pacific NW
- Preferential options on discounted booth space, advertising and sponsorships
- Advertising opportunities in the Grape Post
- Listing in WAWGG Service & Supplier Source Directory, a resource provided to our winery and grower membership annually.
- Awareness of industry issues and direction.

Membership Supports the Washington Grape and Wine Industry Through:

- Workshops, seminars and tours focused on important industry topics
- Northwest Grape Foundation Service vineyard for access to certified clean plants
- New and ongoing wine and grape research at educational institutions
- Association efforts to address State and Federal legislative issues affecting the industry
- Vinewise® and now Winewise, online guides to sustainability with self-assessments and work plans
